RESIST MEETING, BOSTON, MARCH 4 '73.

Present: Paul Lauter, Claudette Piper, Tom Davidson, Andy Himes, Louis Kampf, Hilde Hein, Mitch Goodman, Ken Hale, Hank Rosemont, Florence Howe, Bob Zevin, Eileen Atherton, Frank Joyce, Una Claffey.

Hilde Hein took the chair. Andy gave the financial report. Our current balance was $10877.56. Our income was $11375.67, disbursements were $6885.92 and projected encumbrances were $2325.00. With projected income we estimated we had a total of $13,500.00 to grant at the meeting.

Ken Hale gave the office report and talked about the new method of dealing with requests; from now on those who had taken responsibility for interest areas would be responsible for preparing requests for the meeting. Interest areas have been broken up as follows;

Community Organizing; Andy Himes, Jean Turner.

Women; Hilde Hein, Una Claffey

Military; Bob Zevin

Anti-War; Tom Davidson

Prisons; Tom Wolf, Belle Chevigny

Non-Violent and Student Movement; Hank Rosemont

Legal; Bob Rosenthal

Mental Health; Bob Rosenthal

Labour; Claudette Piper, Frank Joyce, Una Claffey

Indian and Chicano Projects, Ken Hale.

People were also asked to continue soliciting requests especially from geographic areas where they had contacts. People who are not included in this list and would like to work on the areas mentioned or others should contact us.

Mass mailings were discussed and we projected that in the next few months, probably up to June, we would send mailings to lists from War Resisters League, Medical Aid, McGovern lists and Spanish Refugee Aid. We agreed to let Spanish Refugee Aid have the use of our list again.

Una reported that the extended newsletter, which includes the first article from the "interproject memo", would be ready in about 10 days. Eileen, Hank and Ken took responsibility for putting the next issue together.

Hank reported on a recent trip to Madison where he had found a lot of activity but a general tendency of people being more active in community as distinct from campus activity.

Una reported on the recent regional conference of the Puerto Rican Socialist Party in Hartford. The conference was a preparatory one for their first North American zonal congress to be held in New York on April 8.

The next two meetings of Resist will be on April 1 and May 6.
